A Year in Review

Check out NOYN's A Year in Review. We hope the stories we've shared will provide a window into the work of Newark Opportunity Youth Network and into the potential of each young person we serve. Despite all the challenges of this past school year, there is much to be celebrated. From post-secondary placements to the passage of legislation, we are proud of the work that's been done - but know there's much more that lies ahead. Read more at the link below.
